

The Natural Advantage

Lung Restore Capsules

THOMPSON'S | 508

- Formulated with herbs traditionally used in Chinese & Western herbal medicine to help soothe, clear and protect the lungs

BENEFITS

- Licorice has traditionally been used in Chinese herbal medicine to help relieve wheezing, shortness of breath and a sore throat.
- Horse-heal has traditionally been used in Western herbal medicine to help clear excess mucus from the lungs.
- Reishi mushroom provides antioxidant activity, assisting the lungs with oxidative stress caused by environmental pollution and second hand smoke, whilst also supporting the immune system.
- Ginger has traditionally been used in Western herbal medicine to relieve coughs and colds.

SUITABLE FOR

- Those who seek a supplement to support normal healthy breathing*. *based on herbs used in traditional Western herbal medicine
